

'CINTA' in Vancouver

CINTA in Vancouver

A total of 70 film enthusiasts attended the screening of the Malaysian film 'CINTA' on 12 June 2009. They were invited from the local Malaysian community, local Canadians, a film festival organizer as well as university professor and official who appreciate Southeast Asian culture and arts scene.

CINTA won the Best Film category at the 20th Malaysian Film Festival in 2007 presented the audience with five different stories inter-mingled in one universal theme of love. It also presents current sociological development in Malaysia that is modern and urban.

The Consulate General is grateful to FINAS for allowing the Consulate General to organize the film screening and their support to the initiative