THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF MALAYSIA
INVITES MALAYSIANS TO APPLY FOR THE FOLLOWING POSITION

THE REPRESENTATIVE OF MALAYSIA TO
THE ASEAN INTERGOVERNMENTAL COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS
(AICHR) (2022-2025)

Background

ASEAN was established on 8 August 1967 through the signing of the Bangkok Declaration (ASEAN Declaration). At the 27th ASEAN Summit, the ASEAN Heads of State/Government gathered to celebrate the formal establishment of the ASEAN Community 2015 and to chart the ASEAN Community Visions 2020. An integral principle that governs ASEAN is respect for fundamental freedoms, the promotion and protection of human rights, and the promotion of social justice as enshrined in the ASEAN Charter.

The ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights (AICHR) was established in 2009 in accordance with the ASEAN Charter to primarily assist ASEAN Member States in the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms, and to uphold the right of the peoples of ASEAN to live in peace and dignity. The AICHR's works are based on its five-year work plans comprising high priorities programmes and activities to facilitate ASEAN Community building.

The operationalization of the AICHR is governed by its terms of reference (TOR) adopted by the ASEAN Foreign Ministers in 2009. The work of the AICHR representatives is supported by the respective ASEAN national secretariats of each Member States.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Representative of Malaysia to the AICHR has the obligation to attend AICHR meetings and to fulfil his/her responsibilities as stipulated TOR as follows:-

- (i) To develop strategies for the promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms to complement the building of the ASEAN Community;
- (ii) To enhance public awareness of human rights among the peoples of ASEAN through education, research and dissemination of information;

- (iii) To promote capacity building for the effective implementation of international human rights treaty obligations undertaken by ASEAN Member States;
- (iv) To encourage ASEAN Member States to consider acceding to and ratifying international human rights;
- (v) To promote the full implementation of ASEAN instruments related to human rights;
- (vi) To provide advisory services and technical assistance on human rights matters to ASEAN sectoral bodies upon request;
- (vii) To engage in dialogue and consultation with other ASEAN bodies and entities associated with ASEAN, including civil society organisations and other stakeholders, as provided for in Chapter V of the ASEAN Charter;
- (viii) To consult, as may be appropriate, with other national, regional and international institutions and entities concerned with the promotion and protection of human rights;
- (ix) To obtain information from ASEAN Member States on the promotion and protection of human rights;
- (x) To develop common approaches and positions on human rights matters of interest to ASEAN;
- (xi) To prepare studies on thematic issues of human rights in ASEAN;
- (xii) To submit an annual report on its activities, or other report if deemed necessary, to the ASEAN Foreign Ministers Meeting; and
- (xiii) To perform any other tasks as may be assigned to it by the ASEAN Foreign Ministers Meeting.

The Representative of Malaysia to the AICHR, shall act impartially in accordance with the ASEAN Charter and the TOR of AICHR, in the discharge of his/her duties.
